

08 February 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Fourth (IV) Session of ERO Board

The Board of Energy Regulatory Office (ERO), today held the fourth session for this year. In this session, electricity tariffs for tariff year 2022 for Transmission System and Market Operator (KOSTT); Distribution System Operator (KEDS) and Universal Service Supplier (KESCO) were approved.

Retail electricity tariffs for non-household customers, within the Universal Service, shall remain the same as last year.

Tariffs for household customers, for the level of consumption up to 800 kWh per month, will remain the same, whereas the difference of consumption over 800 kWh per month, will be billed with the low tariff (during the night) of 5.9 and the high tariff (during the day) of 12.52 cents.

New tariffs will enter into force on 9 February 2022 and shall be applied until 31 March 2023.